

High Country Host Regional Visitor Center

UPCOMING EVENTS

Download at HighCountryCalendar.com For more info: 828-264-1299

FORUM MUSIC SERIES

June 20, 5 + 7:30pm, Hayes Auditorium, Lees McRae College, Banner Elk

Sherma Andrews possesses skills known only to few artists. She performs passionately and authentically in many different genres and styles, leaving her audience stunned and captivated every time. Sherma's production of "The Legendary Lady Singers" highlights some of the greatest female singers and their hit songs in a way that only Sherma Andrews can deliver.

POTTERY DEMO

June 21-26, 10-4pm, Moses Cone Manor, Blue Ridge Parkway, Blowing Rock

Potter Lynn Jenkins will be demonstrating wheel-throwing techniques on the front porch of the Moses Cone Manor. Visitors are encouraged to watch and ask questions while the demonstrators work and talk about their creative process!

AFTERNOON ART CLUB

June 21, 3:30pm, Blowing Rock Art & History Museum

Children ages 6 - 12 are invited to join us for creative art-making activities through a variety of media, from watercolor to clay. Each week features a famous artist, book, or theme to serve as inspiration and guidance for the art-making activity. ONLINE REGISTRATION is required.

WILKESBORO FARMERS MARKET

June 21, 3:30pm, Yadkin Valley Marketplace, Wilkesboro

Offering locally grown produce, meats, eggs, dairy, baked goods, canned goods, crafts and handmade items.

KING STREET MARKET

June 21, 4pm, 126 Poplar Grove Connector

King Street Market is Boone's newest weekday farmer's market, offering fresh produce, eggs, meats, goat cheese, baked goods and value added foods from local farms, many of which, you won't see anywhere else in Watauga County.

GRILLIN' & CHILLIN'

June 21, 6pm, Caddyshack Café, Sugar Mountain

Listen and dance to live music on the deck of the Caddyshack Café at the Sugar Mountain Public Golf Club. Top regional bands perform 6-9 PM. Free admission. Dinner and drinks are available to purchase beginning at 5:30. Lawn setting is also available so bring your own chair and enjoy sunset panoramic mountain views.

BOONE BIGFOOTS

June 22 & 25, 6:30pm, Beaver Field, Boone

Boone Bigfoots play summer baseball as a part of the Textile League at Appalachian State University's Beaver Field!

GUIDED HIKE

June 23, 10am, Buckeye Recreation Center, Beech Mountain

Enjoy a hike on the Red Fox Trail here on Beech Mountain. Hike will depart promptly at 10 AM from the Buckeye Recreation Center. Bring water and wear appropriate footwear. For more information please call 828-387-3003.

BLOWING ROCK FARMERS MARKET

June 23, 3-6pm, Park Ave, Blowing Rock

The Blowing Rock Farmers Market offers a great mid-week selection of local produce and goods from area farmers. Located on Park Avenue, right in downtown Blowing Rock, it's a convenient stop!

OLD TIME JAM

June 23, 7pm, Jones House, Downtown Boone

Bring an acoustic instrument to play along or just enjoy the music as local musicians play old-time fiddle and folk songs until the "last call for tunes" at 9:45pm.

LANSING FARMERS MARKET

June 24, 1-5pm, Creeper Trail Park, Lansing

Find fresh produce, local honey, handcrafted goods and more

BACKSTREET CONCERT

June 24, 5:30pm, Backstreet Park, West Jefferson

Enjoy a free outdoor concert. This week: The King Bees (Blues/Rock).

JONES HOUSE CONCERT

June 24, 5:30-8:30pm, Jones House, Downtown Boone

Concerts are free and open to the public. Just bring a lawn chair or blanket to sit on! *Parking is free in downtown Boone after 5pm! Alcoholic beverages are permitted on the Jones House property. Friendly pets are permitted This week: Erika Lewis & Rastacoustic

ENSEMBLE STAGE: NO WAKE

June 24-25, 7pm, Historic Banner Elk School

With determination (and a bullhorn), a crotchety, old retiree is on a mission to save the loons of Lake Winnepesaukee. His summer expectations are thwarted by a brash, townie teenager hired to clean the house next door. While the two initially grate on each other, they gradually form a unique intergenerational bond.

FAMILY FUN NIGHT

June 24, 7-10pm, Brick Oven Pizzeria, Beech Mountain

Enjoy the bounce house, mini-golf and pizza. Live music with Surefire at 5:30 and the movie "Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles" will begin on the outdoor screen at 8:45.

LYNDY'S MAGICAL COMEDY SHOW

June 24, 7pm, Hampton Inn, Boone

Step into Lyndy's Magic Parlor in Boone NC for a mind-blowing magic and comedy show. No big stage or production. No rabbits or tigers. Only a masterful blend of clean humor, sleight of hand and tons of audience involvement performed in an intimate setting.

WILKESBORO FARMERS MARKET

June 25, 7:30am-12, Wilkesboro Square

Offering locally grown produce, meats, eggs, dairy, baked goods, canned goods, crafts and handmade items.

BOONE NC WATAUGA COUNTY FARMERS MARKET

June 25, 8am-1pm, Horn in the West, Boone

Offers local produce, meats, and flowers plus live music, cooking demos and children's activities

WEST JEFFERSON FARMERS MARKET

June 25, 8am-1pm, Horn in the West, Boone

A covered open-air market located on the backstreet in West Jefferson. Fresh, locally grown produce, nursery plants, homemade baked goods and handmade crafts.

ANNUAL HERITAGE DAY AND KILN OPENING

June 25, 10-4pm, Bolick and Traditions Pottery, Lenoir

Be present at 10am to see items fresh out of the kiln and check out the best selection of wood fired pottery! You'll find face jugs, swirl vases, pitchers, candlesticks and much more! Enjoy live music all day, storytelling, and shop from other vendors during the event. Bring chairs, leave coolers and pets at home.

FURRY TAILS KIDS THEATRE

June 25, 11am, Historic Banner Elk School

Two bumbling actors try to present a few of the world's most beloved fairy tales. Unfortunately, their script becomes seriously scrambled and they perform "Goldisocks and the Three Wolves," "The Three Billy Trolls Gruff," and "The Three Little Bears." It takes the help of the whole audience to set the stories straight.

BEECH MOUNTAIN STREET DANCE

June 25, 6pm, Beech Mountain Town Hall

Enjoy a FREE Street Dance on Saturday nights in the parking lot of Beech Mountain's Town Hall & Visitor Center featuring DJ Frank Steele (playing 60s to today's hits). You can count on feel-good music and fun for the whole family until dark! Food and drinks available for purchase.

SINGING ON THE MOUNTAIN

June 26, 9-2pm, MacRae Meadows, Grandfather Mountain, Linville

Top gospel groups will perform, and audiences can expect a sermon from a well-known speaker. Admission is free. In a spirit of faith and community, all are welcome to enjoy picnics and musical performances together.

THE DROWSY CHAPERONE

June 26, 2pm, Lees McRae College Hayes Auditorium, Banner Elk

When a lover of classic musicals puts the vinyl of his favorite '20s on his turntable, the record comes to life and the zany characters come busting through his refrigerator door! Winner of five Tony Awards and was called the perfect Broadway musical by The New York Magazine, praised for its humor and heart.